YOU’RE INVITED TO THE DESERT FOODS FIESTA AND MESQUITE PANCAKE BREAKFAST!

With special guest Don Guerra of Barrio Bread

COOPER CENTER FOR ENVIRONMENTAL LEARNING
Saturday, October 6, 2018

FESTIVITIES INCLUDE:
• Mesquite pancake breakfast: $8 per person, includes mesquite pancakes, syrup, butter, and fresh fruit
• Demonstrations on how to safely process prickly pear and olives into edible products
• Mesquite-pod milling into flour (bring your mesquite pods and a container; milling fee of $3 per gallon; cash or check)
• Finding and using the right mesquite pods
• Solar cooking with the Solar Guild of Tucson
• Rainwater harvesting presentation
• Bike-blender smoothies from Tucson Garden Schools
• Roving musicians
• Refreshments and desert treats available from Heirloom Farms, Natural Grocers, Las Malpitas Community Farm, Cheri’s Desert Harvest, just to name a few!

BARRIO BREAD: FROM SEED TO EAT
Internationally acclaimed baker Don Guerra gives a bread tasting and a milling demo with Barrio Bread grains. Don also will explain the process of growing the local grain economy and how making this bread or making your own helps support these efforts, Talk begins at 11:45 a.m.

MORE INFO: VISIT coopercenter.arizona.edu, CALL 520-626-1825, OR EMAIL MIKE (mmayer1@email.arizona.edu) OR SANLYN (buxner@email.arizona.edu).